

The Last Apprentice Lure Of The Dead Book 10

The sword opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his work.

Tom crosses fence at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly discovers that Tom's hands are covered with jam. She asks him how he got the jam on his hands, and he tells her that he was in the closet. She is still angry from her first punishment, but she lets Tom off. Tom's half brother, Sid, tries to get Aunt Polly to discipline him, but she refuses.

Tom goes out of the fence to play the streets of St. Petersburg. He and the new arrival, Huckleberry Finn, play a game of hide-and-seek. Tom chooses the wilderness all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.

Why I Don't Like Variable Universal Life (VUL) Insurance. VUL is a sub-optimal investment which benefits the provider more than the customer. It might seem like a 2-for-1 deal. But it's really a 2-for-2 deal. You can do better by getting a term life insurance and investing the difference in a high-performing mutual fund or UITF.
