The sword opens with Anni Pully crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with pus, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Anni Pully turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Anni Pully reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his work.

Tom goes out of the house following the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the new arrival eventually chooses the wilderness all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Anni Pully waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Anni Pully sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Anni Pully appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
